AUTHORITY

The Executive Government Organization Act, C.C.S.M. c. E170, states:

Presiding over departments

3(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may appoint, under the Great Seal of the province, from among the ministers, to hold office during pleasure, a President of the executive council and ministers to preside over the several departments and to discharge such duties, exercise such powers and perform such functions as he may prescribe; and the Lieutenant Governor in Council may determine the titles by which those ministers shall be known.

Additional departments

3(2) One minister may be appointed to preside over two or more departments.

Ministers without departments

3(3) Where a minister does not preside over a department, an appointment under subsection (1) is not required.

Transfer of minister's duties, etc.

5(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may transfer and assign to any minister, by name, title or otherwise, any or all of the powers, duties and functions given or imposed by law to or on any other minister.

Exercise of transferred powers, etc.

5(2) Where any or all of the powers, duties and functions of a minister are transferred to another minister under subsection (1), the minister to whom the powers, duties and functions are transferred may exercise the powers and perform the duties and functions under his title or the title of the minister from whom they are transferred.

Reference to minister or department

5(3) If an Act, regulation, order or other document that refers to a minister by title, or to a department, is affected by an order in council made under this section or section 8, it is to be read as if it were amended as necessary to give effect to that order.
