AUTHORITY

The Executive Government Organization Act, C.C.S.M. c. E170, states:

Acting ministers

4 The Lieutenant Governor in Council may, either in special cases or generally, appoint a minister as acting minister for any other minister during the absence or incapacity from any cause of that other minister; and all acts of an acting minister shall have the same effect as if done by the minister in whose place the minister is acting.

Transfer of minister's duties, etc.

5(1) The Lieutenant Governor in Council may transfer and assign to any minister, by name, title or otherwise, any or all of the powers, duties and functions given or imposed by law to or on any other minister.

Exercise of transferred powers, etc.

5(2) Where any or all of the powers, duties and functions of a minister are transferred to another minister under subsection (1), the minister to whom the powers, duties and functions are transferred may exercise the powers and perform the duties and functions under the minister's title or the title of the minister from whom they are transferred.

Organization of the executive government

8 Notwithstanding any Act of the Legislature, the Lieutenant Governor in Council may determine the organization of the executive government and of the various departments thereof, and for that purpose may

- (a) establish, vary or disestablish any department;
- (b) determine or vary the duties and functions of any department and transfer any duties and functions from one department to another; and
- (c) determine or change the name of any department.

The Interpretation Act, C.C.S.M. c. 180, states:

Who may act for a minister

31(1) Words in an Act or regulation that direct or authorize a minister of the Crown to do anything, or that otherwise apply to the minister by the name of his or her office, include the following persons:

- (b) if the office is vacant, another minister who is designated to act in the office by an order in council;
